Middle's Hearts Weak

Eyesight Also Impaired

Washington, May 12.—Heart trouble and impaired eyesight have developed to such an extent among the midshipmen at the Naval Academy that a special investigating board is to be appointed to inquire into the contributing causes. Secretary Meyer, who has just returned from a visit to Annapolis, is determined to discover why the young officers are afflicted in this manner when they enter the academy with a clean bill of health.

It is believed that the young men enter too vigorously into athletics, neglecting their hearts, and an order may be issued to prevent this overdoing of hard play.

Senator McCarren Sued for $100,000

New York, May 12.—Winslow Birnie, who was recently appointed guardian ad litem of "Patrick H. McCarren, Jr.," five year old son of Mrs. Mary A. Dixon, has begun an action against Senator Patrick H. McCarren, of Brooklyn, for $100,000, for an alleged breach of contract.

In the complaint it is set forth that the Senator has failed to keep his promise to educate and support the boy. Senator McCarren, through his counsel, has entered a general denial of the allegations.

The case came up before Judge Gilchrist in the Supreme Court yesterday on a motion by the Senator to appoint a guardian of the youthful complainant to have the Court commission some one to take testimony of witnesses in Montana.

Several years ago Mrs. Mary A. Dixon sued Senator McCarren for breach of promise of marriage and the case was dropped. Judge Hendrick appointed the guardian ad litem of Mrs. Dixon's son, and yesterday's proceedings, in which decision was rendered, constituted the first step in litigation on behalf of the child.

THE BOSTON TEA PARTY.

In one of the show windows of the Van Dyk Tea Co. at 1135 Main street is a mechanical representation of the famous Boston tea party, which is attracting considerable attention. A full rigged three masted ship is shown in the foreground, intended to be a faithful representation of that historic vessel, the ship which brought the tea to Boston town. On either side stretches out the water of Boston harbor and in the background the old town with its church spires and buildings of the strange architecture of that day showing in the distance. A number of mechanical figures on board the vessel work vigorously in a life like manner throwing into the harbor chest after chest of tea, just as on the night of December 16, 1773. A number of men disguised as Mohawk Indians boarded the vessel, overpowered the crew and in two hours dumped into Boston harbor 342 chests of tea, valued at $18,000 pounds. The whole mechanism is clearly conceived and reflects great credit to the inventor.

CAPT. HAINS COUNSEL PREPARE APPEAL FOR NEW TRIAL

Prisoner Expresses no Concern Over His Conviction of Manslaughter in First Degree—Jury's Verdict Causes Great Surprise.

(Special from United Press.)

New York, May 12.—His conviction of manslaughter in the first degree has not altered the apathetic attitude of Captain Peter Hains, Jr., and he spent as quiet and restful a night last night as he has since he entered the Queen's County jail, eight months ago. He expressed no concern to-day as to the verdict, rendered yesterday afternoon. John F. McIntyre and Attorney Reilly, of counsel for the defense, were at work to-day preparing the appeal for a new trial which will be made before Judge Garretson at Flushing on Monday. Both say they are confident that they will be able to set aside the manslaughter verdict.

The announcement of Foreman Sundling of the jury that he and his fellow jurors found the guilty verdict of manslaughter was totally unexpected to everyone connected with the case. What the defense looked for was a hung jury. It developed that when the jury left the court room to consider the verdict, six men stood out for conviction while six stood out for acquittal. A compromise was reached.

Mrs. William E. Annis, widow of the man the captain shot, expressed herself as well satisfied with the verdict. "We did not clamor for the life of Captain Hains," she said to-day, "all we wanted was justice and I believe the verdict of the jury is convincing proof of the guilt of the man who robbed me of my husband."

"The case was tried on its merits and Captain Hains was fortunate not to have a more serious verdict found against him."

KILLED MAN FOR SMALL THEFT

(Special from United Press.)

Nashua, N. H., May 12.—Theft of a small sum of money from Theodosios Balatsoz, a Greek, by George Marot, a notorious character here, proved fatal to-day. Marot, his heart split in two by a knife, is dead at the Emergency Hospital and Balatsoz, captured after a desperate struggle, is held for murder. The killing was one of the most sensational ever seen in this city. The Greek found Marot in company with two other men, and when he stole his small savings and stabbed him with his knife. He was captured after a desperate struggle. No trace has been found of the men who were with Marot.

ALCOHOL IN MEDICINES.

Alcohol is the best known preservative of medical compounds, and the average proprietary medicine contains from 15 per cent. to 22 per cent. which is the smallest possible amount to preserve the ingredients, while the average doctor's prescription contains from 25 per cent. to 50 per cent.

Such standard preparations as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound contain but 18 per cent. and they even put the Compound up in tablet form, which the over-scrupulous woman, who objects to alcohol in any degree, may use.

WILL CONNECTICUT STAND FOR THIS?

(Hartford Courant.)

Will the gentlemen of the General Assembly please to look into the statute books for themselves and read Section 3,916. Here it is:

3,916.—Manufacture of Electricity Restricted.—No person or corporation unless acting under authority from the General Assembly, shall, in any city or town of this state, generate, produce, transmit, distribute or sell electricity for sale any electricity for purposes of lighting or power; but this section shall not prevent the manufacture for the purposes of the business, or for the use of the manufacturer, or for the sale thereof to tenants in the same premises where it is manufactured.

See what this means. It is a roundabout way of saying that in twelve places and only twelve, it is against the law to run a wire from one building to another adjoining and send electricity along that wire to develop power or light there. It means that the people of these places, namely: Bridgeport, New Haven, Danbury, New London, Hartford, New Britain, Meriden, Norwich, Middletown, Stamford, New Britain, Watbury, are cut off from rights that every other citizen of the state enjoys. It means that neighboring interests cannot combine and set up a dynamo and supply one another, even if they are in the same square and interfere with nobody's rights in so doing.
